ABOUT THE COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF MUSIC AND ARTS (CSMA)

The Community School of Music and Arts, a non-profit center for arts education, is committed to providing arts for all, regardless of age, level, background or economic means. CSMA provides classes, lessons, camps, arts-in-the-schools programs (Arts in Action, Music in Action), concerts, exhibits, and free community events. In January 2004, CSMA opened Silicon Valley's first-ever center for music and arts education at 230 San Antonio Circle in Mountain View. The $11.7 million Finn Center building is the school's first permanent home since its founding in 1968. The 25,000 square-foot, state-of-the-art facility includes private music studios, classrooms, ceramics studio, digital arts lab, teacher resource center, 200-plus seat concert hall, and exhibition gallery. CSMA is a member of the National Guild of Community Schools of the Arts and as such operates in the settlement house tradition of providing artistic and educational opportunities to people regardless of their diverse cultures, ages, abilities or economic means. CSMA is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.
